

ITALIAN WINE LOVERS PROGRAMME

The Experience

Our exclusive Italian Wine Lovers programme is designed not just for wine specialists, but for all those who just simply... love wine and wish to enjoy a full-immersion experience in the world of Italian wines while savoring everything that Florence has to offer.

Students will be able to attend Italian classes in the morning and experience an amazing itinerary in the world of Italian wines through dedicated lessons, tastings and a visit to local producers.

The programme will not just focus on the technical point of view but also on the cultural, historical and traditional aspects of the Italian wine world and on how it is intimately connected to so many aspects of the Italian life and culture, making it an experience completely different from any other similar programme.

The wine lessons and tastings will take place in an astonishing terrace with a 360 degrees view over the city roofs, allowing participants to experience all the magic that makes Florence unique, while enjoying their passion for wine.

Our sommelier, but more importantly wine lover, will take you into an unforgettable journey through the many aspects of the Italian wine world, focusing on the incredible variety it has to offer, and spacing from the local Tuscan producers to some of the other wines famous all around the world.

Participants will be able to not just taste some of the most amazing and excellent wines Italy has to offer, but also learn something unique about them, about the people who produce them, the history behind each different bottle and all the local traditions that make Italian wines not just something good to drink, but a part of our identity.

A visit to a local producer will allow you to experience firsthand all the work that hides behind the final product and immerse yourself in the magical atmosphere of a Tuscan vineyard and ancient wine cellars, meet the people whose work makes the magic possible, and even more, have a taste of it!
